DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 39-41, 43, 44, 46-49, 51, 52, 54-63 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Weelink U.S. Patent 5,111,770.

Weelink teaches an animal cubicle partition which is structurally similar to the Applicant's claimed free stall divider for dividing an open area into separate stall. More specifically, the apparatus of Weelink includes a base 4, as shown in Figure 2. Two dividing elements 2 and 3 are coupled to the base by a mounting portion 10. The dividing elements extending away from each other (5) and along stall spaces of two adjacent stalls. Regarding claims 40, 41, 48, 49, 51, 52 and 54, bolts (unnumbered) provide a means for removably and permanently coupling the dividing elements to the base. As for claims 43, 44 and 46, 58, 59 and 63, see the related figures. Regarding claim 59, as seen in Figure 2, the leg is welded to the base 4.
